Vinny was on his way to the university. He has just started attending university because his wife, well ex-wife decided to leave him because he was “lazy”.

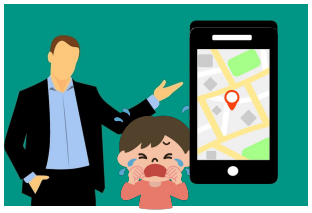
Vinny looks down on his watch. Since he was commuting to class he really needed to make sure he timed his drive well. He was a very punctual person. He had accounted for everything down to the traffic. Except… parking.

When Vinny pulled up to the lot, every single parking spot was taken. And he had 2 minutes to get to class.

Vinny was running as fast as he could but it was too late. The professor had locked the door and he missed attendance.



He sat outside and sobbed on the floor, partly because of missing class and partly because of his wife. While crying a classmate asked him what was wrong. “I couldn’t find a parking spot.” Vinny cried. “Well have you tried this new app? It’ll help you find a spot from the comfort of your phone.”

The next day Vinny was driving to class. He found a spot almost immediately when he used the handy new app his classmate had told him about.
